

Dear Sirs/Madams,

I am concerned about the purposed “broadband over power lines”. I would suggest to you the possibility of a greatly increased noise level that would NOT allow a remote/weak station in distress to be heard! This possibility alone should have the highest consideration, whether it is a military, commercial or civilian station all deserve to be heard/saved.

Thank you

Ed O’Hearn

Amateur radio operator N1EO